Stop Killing Filipinos.

An appeal to the people of the United States, says the Unicago Chronicle, urging lovers of freedom to join in an attempt to secure a sus pension of hostilities in the Philippines has been made public. It is signed by some lifty men, all of whom are distinguished in politics or liter ature or commerce. The appeal does not contemplate an immediate "haul ing down" of the flag in the Pnilip pines. It urges a conference with the insurgents with a view to stop plag further bloodsned. It does declare, it is true, that the Filipinos are entitled to independence, but that is not the primary object of the appeal.
